

THE CALOUSTE GULBENKIAN FOUNDATION CONCERTS

NATIONAL GALLERY OF ART
WASHINGTON, D. C.

899th Concert

Sunday, December 30, 1962
8:00 P. M.
In The East Garden Court

JOANN GRILLO, MEZZO-SOPRANO
RICHARD FOSTER, PIANIST

Program

I

Anonymous	Come, let's be merry
Anonymous	Greensleeves
Purcell	Man is for woman made
Niles	I wonder as I wander

II

Gluck	Che faro, from "Orfeo ed Euridice"
Pergolesi	Se tu m'ami
Respighi	Nebbie
Rossini	Una voce poco fa, from "The Barber of Seville"

III

Massenet	Letter Scene, from "Werther"
----------	------------------------------

I N T E R M I S S I O N

Dvorak	Gypsy Songs
--------	-------------

The silent forest
Wide sleeves, wide trousers
Give the hawk a cage

Obradors	Dos cantares populares
Obradors	El vito
Chapi	Las hijas del zebedel

Due to the sudden illness of Louise Parker, Miss Joann Grillo has kindly consented to sing this evening. She is under the management of Eric Semon Associates, 111 West 57 Street, New York City.

This concert is broadcast by Station WGMS, 570 on AM and 103.5 on FM.