

NATIONAL GALLERY OF ART
WASHINGTON, D. C.

OCTOBER 10, 1942
FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

SIX SUNDAY EVENING CONCERTS AT THE
NATIONAL GALLERY OF ART

The National Gallery of Art has announced that, through the generosity of The A. W. Mellon Educational and Charitable Trust, six Sunday Evening Concerts will be given in the East Garden Court by an orchestral ensemble from the National Symphony Orchestra and other organizations. The first concert will be given on October 11th at 7:15 o'clock, and other dates will be announced later. These concerts have been arranged especially for Service men, war-workers, and all others who may wish to attend, and will be free, as are all Gallery activities.

On October 11th Francis Garzia will conduct.