NATIONAL GALLERY OF ART
Washington 25, D. C.

FOR RELEASE: Sunday, June 27, 1954

WASHINGTON, June 26: Announcement is made today, by the National Gallery of Art, that Mr. David Keppel, of the Print Department, is retiring on June 30, 1954, after ten years on the staff of the Gallery. Well known to print connoisseurs, both here and abroad, Mr. Keppel has had a long and distinguished career in the service of the graphic arts. He has made an important contribution to the National Gallery in helping to build up its Print Collection and in interpreting it to the public.
