

NATIONAL GALLERY OF ART

NEWS RELEASE

SIXTH STREET AT CONSTITUTION AVENUE NW WASHINGTON DC 20565 • 737-4215 extension 224

Showings of the film "The American Vision" will resume in the National Gallery's auditorium on Saturdays at 2:15 (starting November 19). Written and directed by J. Carter Brown, "The American Vision" traces the development of American art from the colonists to the present day with pictures from the National Gallery Collection. The film has been scheduled for these additional showings in honor of its latest prize, the top award at Chicago's International Film Festival.
