NEWS RELEASE

SIXTH STREET AT CONSTITUTION AVENUE NW WASHINGTON DC 20565 • 737-4215 extension 224

SPECIAL NOTICE

Washington, D. C. December 20, 1966. National Gallery 1966 Christmas card art is the subject of a holiday exhibition of prints and drawings in the East Corridor of the National Gallery through January 1st. The prints range from an anonymous 15th century woodcut through works by Dürer and Rembrandt to modern efforts by Rouault and Feininger. Each original drawing or print is displayed with the Christmas card in which it appears.

The Publications Department of the National Gallery expects to sell more than half a million Christmas cards this year.
