

NATIONAL GALLERY OF ART

NEWS RELEASE

SIXTH STREET AT CONSTITUTION AVENUE NW WASHINGTON DC 20565 • 737-4215 extension 224

April 19, 1973

TO ALL PUBLIC SERVICE OFFICES

The National Gallery's special exhibition "Impressionist and Post-impressionist Paintings from the U.S.S.R." has been overwhelmingly received by all those who live in and are visiting Washington, D.C.

We would like to ask for your help in letting everyone know that these paintings, which have never been seen in the U. S. before, will only be on view for another 10 days. There have been crowds, but the Gallery is open until 9 p.m. and we would like to emphasize that there are no lines in the late afternoon and evening.

We realize that this is short notice for airing a public service announcement. Nevertheless, we hope that you will appreciate the value and assist us by sending it out over your stations as soon as possible.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Sincerely,

Katherine Warwick

Katherine Warwick (KK)
Assistant to the Director