WASHINGTON 25, D. C.

MAY 1945

NATIONAL GALLERY OF ART

Smithsonian Institution
6th Street and Constitution Avenue
Washington 25, D. C.

May 1945

EXHIBITION

The Passion of Our Lord as depicted in old and modern graphic art will be on view from May 13 through June 20.

LECTURES

The four Sunday lectures scheduled this month will be devoted to American painting.

On May 6, James W. Lane, of the Gallery's curatorial staff, will present a survey of nineteenth century developments.

The work of George Bellows will be discussed on May 27 by Forbes Watson, who was a friend of the artist. Mr. Watson is the author of a number of books on American art.

CONCERTS

Washington soloists will appear in the Sunday evening concerts on May 13 and May 20.

The Gallery announces that the Concerts of Recorded Music have been temporarily discontinued.
