A prize winner in the Paris, Toulouse and ’s-Hertogenbosch International Singing Competitions, baritone DONALD COLLUP began his training as a member of the Texas Boys Choir. He later attended the Peabody Institute of the Johns Hopkins University, where he majored in both voice and piano, the Curtis Institute of Music and Yale University. Since 1979, Mr. Collup has studied in master classes on a regular basis with Gérard Souzay. He has also appeared in concert in France with Mr. Souzay’s accompanist, Dalton Baldwin. Among the many awards Mr. Collup has received are a Solo Recitalist Fellowship from the National Endowment for the Arts and the 1985 Joy in Singing Award. This past year he made a CD recording of Stravinsky’s Les noces with the Atlanta Choral Guild. He has performed with composer Ned Rorem as his accompanist, in programs that have included three Rorem settings of poems by Walt Whitman, commissioned by Mr. Collup.

KENNETH MERRILL is a graduate of the Juilliard School of Music, where he studied piano with Josif Raieff and accompanying with Martin Isepp. While at Juilliard he assisted in productions of the Opera Training Division and was chosen to accompany the master classes given by Elizabeth Schwarzkopf and Sir Peter Pears. He has studied chamber music with Antonio Janigro at the Mozarteum in Salzburg and has worked with Gérard Souzay and Dalton Baldwin at the Festival of Aix-en-Provence. Since 1983 Mr. Merrill has taught at the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, New York, where he is associate professor of opera and accompanying. He is also principal opera coach of the Aspen Festival’s Opera Theater.

GABRIEL URBAIN FAURÉ was chiefly employed as a church musician from 1866 until 1896, at which time he took on simultaneously the posts of organist of the Church of the Madeleine in Paris and professor of composition at the Paris Conservatory. In 1905 he was named director of the Conservatory. His songs occupy a position of importance in the development of the French chanson; they are considered by many musicians to be the epitome of that genre. As a composer of romantic outlook, but classical approach, Fauré made a strong impression on his pupils and admirers, a number of whom formed the next generation of significant French composers (Ravel, Roger-Ducasse, Honegger, Milhaud and Poulenc).
