The Musicians

Exciting and innovative, The Alexandria Kleztet has been combining traditional Eastern European/Jewish music with diverse influences for more than a decade. New arrangements of traditional melodies and original songs by members of the band draw upon jazz, classical, world beat, rock, and other musical genres to create a unique and entertaining sound.

The band is based in the Washington-Baltimore area and has performed throughout the Mid-Atlantic region, including annual appearances at the Kennedy Center and regular concerts at the Peabody Institute. The group began touring internationally in 2007, with an appearance at the Semanas Musicales festival in Chile. It recently released its fourth album, Peace, Love and Coffee. In addition to six original compositions, the recording features fresh arrangements of traditional melodies and creative reworkings of songs by Kurt Weill and John Williams. The Kleztet has won fifteen Washington Area Music Awards (also known as Wammies), including: World Music Duo or Group, World Music Instrumentalist, Jazz Instrumentalist, and World Music Recording.
