The Musicians

The United States Army Chorus

In 1956, The U.S. Army Chorus was established as the vocal counterpart of The United States Army Band "Pershing's Own," and is one of the nation's only professional men's choruses. From its inception, The U.S. Army Chorus has established and maintained a reputation of excellence in the performance of male choral literature. Beyond the traditional military music and patriotic standards, the repertoire of the Army Chorus covers a broad spectrum that includes pop, Broadway, folk, and classical music.

The Army Chorus performs frequently at the White House, the vice president's residence, the U.S. Capitol, and the State Department. World leaders, such as former Nicolas Sarkozy of France, Lech Walesa of Poland, and Mikhail Gorbachev of the Soviet Union have been serenaded by the Army Chorus during state visits. In 2007, the group was featured at the state dinner held in honor of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, and in 2008, it performed at the State Arrival Ceremony for Pope Benedict XVI at the White House.

When in Washington, DC, foreign dignitaries and military counterparts visiting our nation's senior leadership are greeted by songs performed in their native tongues, as the Army Chorus is able to sing in more than twenty-six languages and dialects. The chorus has participated in the presidential library dedication ceremonies for Gerald R. Ford, Ronald W. Reagan, George H. W. Bush, and George W. Bush, and performed in memorial ceremonies honoring significant events in our country's history, including the Korean War Veterans Memorial, the National World War II Memorial, and the National 9/11 Pentagon Memorial.

Members of the Army Chorus, most of whom hold advanced degrees in music, are selected from among the nation's finest musicians. In 2016, the group will celebrate its 60th Anniversary to be marked with concerts to include a reunion of past members, many of whom have had successful careers in music education and as soloists on Broadway or on opera stages around the world.
