

Access Statement for Archival Materials

The National Gallery of Art Archives makes historical records and special collections available for research use to the fullest extent possible. Certain materials are temporarily or permanently closed to protect the privacy of individuals or the legitimate needs of the National Gallery of Art in accordance with institutional policy or donor restrictions.

We are committed to making unrestricted materials accessible to all researchers on a fair and equitable basis.

Researchers may only view materials that have been processed and prepared for use by archives staff.

Accessing archival materials is not authorization to publish. Requests for publication use must be obtained separately.

Requests for access can be submitted here. Inquiries are typically answered within five working days.
